

Office of the National Ombudsman

Regulatory Fairness Forum for Small Business

Tuesday, March 18, 2008

Rogers, Arkansas

Small business owners will have an opportunity to discuss issues regarding Federal regulatory compliance and enforcement during this Forum.

Have you or a small business owner you know been unfairly fined or penalized by a Federal government agency, or is a Federal agency enforcement action imminent?

WHO: SBA National Ombudsman Nicholas Owens, and members of the Region VI Regulatory Fairness Board will hear issues and comments about federal regulatory enforcement and compliance actions. Small business owners, representatives of trade associations and community and business leaders are invited to participate, comment about compliance and enforcement of regulations by federal agencies and to learn more about the impact of federal regulations on small businesses.

WHAT: To create a more cooperative regulatory environment among federal agencies and small businesses, Congress has directed the SBA and the National Ombudsman to hold Regulatory Fairness forums. The National Ombudsman will direct specific issues addressed at this forum to the appropriate Federal agency for a higher-level review of fairness than that in the enforcement action. In many instances, the National Ombudsman's action has resulted in federal agencies reducing or waiving penalties and/or compliance actions in cases of unfair or excessive regulatory enforcement.

WHERE: Rogers-Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce • 317 West Walnut • Rogers AR 72756

WHEN: Tuesday, March 18, 2008 • 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Members of the small business community, trade organizations and media are encouraged to attend. There is no fee to attend, open to the public. RSVPs should be made to the Rogers-Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce at 479-636-1240 or by email at gretchen@rogerslowell.com before the forum. Small business owners or representatives unable to attend can contact the National Ombudsman for further assistance.
